This helps increase compliance and community support. This follows common practice in other road-safety or traffic ordinances.
2. Appropriate signage (e.g. "School Zone — Tanod Traffic Assistants on Duty 7–8AM, 4–5PM") shall be installed near school entrances / main roads of each barangay where students will pass.

SECTION 12. Sanctions for Violations (Optional / To be enshrined in a separate ordinance).

1. Barangays — in coordination with the Municipal Government — may provide that any driver or commuter who fails to comply with lawful traffic directions given by deputized Tanod Traffic Assistants during duty hours may be issued a citation ticket and be subject to penalties (e.g. fines, administrative sanctions), in accordance with applicable laws.
2. Any Tanod found abusing their delegated authority (e.g. making arrests, using force, or performing beyond their mandate) shall be subject to revocation of deputation and barangay-level administrative sanctions.

SECTION 13. Review and Amendment.
