- f. Any animal owner may opt to voluntarily commit an animal for temporary custody at the Municipal Pound for a period not to exceed ten (10) days, subject to payment of the prescribed fees.

SECTION 11. NOTICE OF IMPOUNDMENT.

- a. Within twelve (12) hours starting from the time an animal was committed for impoundment at the Municipal Pound, the personnel-in-charge shall locate and identify its animal owner, after which notice of impoundment shall forthwith be issued and served to such person.
- b. When no animal owner shall have been located and identified with the impounded animal the same shall ipso facto be deemed abandoned, thus be properly disposed in accordance with the pertinent provisions of Section 12 and Section 13 of this Ordinance.
- c. The personnel-in-charge of the Municipal Pound shall, from time to time, make a list of all impounded animals thereat, complete with corresponding identifiable description to include kind, breed, color, and other unique markings, if any there be, and post such list at designated public posting boards within the municipality.

SECTION 12. REDEMPTION.

- a. An animal owner may, at any time within the regular working hours after due receipt of the notice of impoundment issued pursuant to Section 11 (a) of this Ordinance but not to exceed 5 days after impoundment, redeem an impounded animal right upon payment of the necessary fees and incidental charges.
- b. Whenever an animal owner, after due notice, deliberately refuses or neglects to redeem an impounded animal within the allowable period herein prescribed, she/he shall be made to pay a fine corresponding to P200.00 for each day of default, or render community service equivalent to one (1) day for each day of default.

SECTION 13. DISPOSTION. -- The following rules shall govern the disposition of animals impounded at the Municipal Pound:

- a. Unclaimed animals at the Municipal Pound shall ipso facto be deemed abandoned, thus become eligible for adoption and may be released to any interested party after the lapse of five (5) days from the time of impoundment, provided: that such animal does not exhibit symptoms of any communicable disease.
- b. Whenever no interested party may opt to adopt, the Municipal Agricultural Office (MAO) shall have the right to cause such abandoned animal to be sold at a public auction.
