ARTICLE III VIOLATIONS TO LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LAWS

Section 96. Equal Access to Job Training and Promotion. – No one shall be deprived of job training or promotion based on gender, sexual orientation, age, ethnicity, civil status, and religion. Employers who violate this provision shall be penalized with a fine of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (P2,500.00), the cancellation of their business permits, or both at the court's discretion.

Section 97. Wages and Benefits. – Every employer shall comply with the minimum wage as prescribed by the Regional Wage Board or as may be provided by existing laws and shall grant all employee benefits without discrimination against women. Violations by employers shall be penalized as provided in the Labor Code.

Section 98. Raids in Entertainment Establishments. – Police brutality shall not be allowed anywhere, at any time, and in any activity such as during raids in entertainment establishments and similar places. Raids shall be conducted according to the law and in a manner that shall not degrade or humiliate others. Violators of this provision shall be subject to appropriate administrative, civil, or penal sanctions.

ARTICLE IV VIOLATIONS AGAINST JUSTICE, PEACE AND ORDER

Section 99. Non-Disclosure of Victims' and Offenders' Identities. – The confidentiality of the actual names, alias, personal circumstances, or any other information to establish the identities of offenders and victims shall be preserved. It shall not be disclosed to the public to protect their privacy and integrity unless authorized by law or for a lawful purpose. Any person who violates this provision shall be penalized with fifteen (15) days of imprisonment or payment of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (P2, 500.00) or both or at the court's discretion. The offenders may also be persecuted for the revelation of secrets under Articles 229 and 230, as the case may be, of the Revised Penal Code or other related laws.

ARTICLE V VIOLATIONS TO PERSONS IN THE SPECIAL SECTORAL CONCERNS

Section 100. Equal Treatment to Persons in the Special Sectors. – Any ridicule, embarrassment, insult, and harassment to persons with disabilities, elderly, solo parents, Muslim and other cultural communities, and those with sexual preferences shall be penalized under the penal provision of this code.

Section 101. Prohibition Against Degrading Programs and Publications. – It shall be unlawful for any person or entity to present reports, programs, or advertisements in print, broadcast, electronics, film, or other forms of media, including stage shows or presentations, that degrade or treat women and men, minors and children as inferior beings or which in any manner subject them to humiliation and ridicule. Publishers, reporters, station or program managers, advertisers, producers, directors, actors, or other persons responsible for such, shall be penalized with a fine of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (P2,500.00) or imprisonment of one (1) month or both at the discretion of the court. The court may impose suspension or revocation of the business permit or franchise to operate.

CHAPTER IV PROVISIONS FOR IMPLEMENTATION, MONITORING AND EVALUATION

ARTICLE I INSTITUTIONAL MECHANISMS

Section 102. Gender Mainstreaming. – The Municipality of Tunga shall ensure the integration of Gender and Development and adopt gender mainstreaming as a strategy for promoting gender responsive governance. It shall integrate gender equality goals into the municipal government's development plans, programs, projects, and services and the whole planning and budgeting cycle. The development plans referred to are the Comprehensive Land Use Plan (CLUP); Comprehensive Development Plan (CDP); Local Development Plan Investment Program (LDIP); Executive Legislative Agenda (ELA); Annual Investment Plan (AIP), and other plans to be formulated by the LGU out of the main instruments which are the CLUP and the CDP.

Section 103. Sex-Disaggregated Database System. – The Municipality of Tunga shall have a database system through CBMS (Community-Based Monitoring System) to identify gender disparities, comprehend the situation of men and women in the locality, and further develop better policies and programs to address identified GAD issues. It shall serve as a basis for gender-responsive planning, budgeting, and policy formulation.

Section 104. Participatory Governance and Partnership. – The Municipal and Barangay government units shall lead in implementing this Code. The Municipality of Tunga shall establish partnerships and linkages with other concerned individuals, agencies, colleges, universities, and other educational institutions, whether public or private, in the conduct of advocacy and capability-building programs and other GAD-related undertakings.

Section 105. Mainstreaming Gender and Development (GAD) in Cooperatives. – The Municipality of Tunga shall ensure the promotion of gender equality and institutionalization of GAD in policies, programs, and other activities of the cooperatives. Moreover, it shall mandate the monitoring of progress in the implementation of GAD programs and activities of cooperatives towards achieving gender equality.

Section 106. The GAD Focal Point System (GFPS). – In order to carry out the general objectives of this Code, the Municipality of Tunga shall create or strengthen their GFPS to catalyze gender mainstreaming in the locality.

Section 107. Composition of the GAD Focal Point System. – The GAD Focal Point System of the Municipality shall be composed of the Executive Committee and the Technical Working Group and shall be composed of the following:

107.a. The GFPS Executive Committee:

107.c. The GFPS Chairperson or Head of Agency shall:

a. Issue policies or other directives that support GAD mainstreaming in the policies, plans, programs, projects and activities, budget, systems, and procedures of the agency, including the creation, strengthening, modification, or reconstitution of the GFPS; and

b. Approve the GAD Plan and Budget of the agency duly endorsed by the Executive Committee, with the assistance of the Technical Working Group, and ensure its implementation.

107.d. Roles and Responsibilities of the Executive Committee:

a. Provide direction and give policy advice to the Agency Head to support and strengthen the GFPS and agency's GAD mainstreaming activities;

b. Direct the identification of GAD strategies, programs, activities, and projects based on the results of the gender audit, gender analysis and according to the identified priorities of the agency in response to the gender issues faced by its clients and employees;

c. Ensure the timely submission of the agency GAD Plan and Budget, Accomplishment Report, and other GAD-related reports to the DILG, PCW and DBM;

d. Ensure the effective and efficient implementation of the agency's GAD programs, activities, and projects and the judicious utilization of the GAD Budget;

e. Build and strengthen the partnership of the agency with PCW, GAD experts, advocates, women's groups, and other stakeholders in pursuit of gender mainstreaming;

f. Recommend approval of agency GAD Plans and Budgets and GAD ARs; and

g. Recommend awards or recognition to outstanding institutional GAD programs, activities, and projects and /or GFPS members.

107. e. Roles and Responsibilities of the Technical Working Group (TWG). The TWG or the Secretariat shall:

a. Facilitate the implementation of the gender mainstreaming efforts of the agency through the GAD planning and budgeting process;

b. Formulate agency GAD Plan and Budget in response to the gender gaps and issues faced by their clients and constituencies, women and men employees, following the conduct of a gender audit, gender analysis, and/or review of sex disaggregated data;

c. Assist in the capacity development of and provide technical assistance to the agency, and as needed, to officers in the other offices or units. In this regard, the TWG shall work with the human resource development office on the development and implementation of an appropriate capacity development program on gender equality and women's empowerment for its employees and, as requested or deemed necessary, for other offices under the Department or Agency, as the case may be;

d. Lead the conduct of advocacy activities and the development of IEC materials to ensure critical support of agency officials, staff, and relevant stakeholders to the activities of the GAD Focal Point System and GAD mainstreaming activities;

e. Monitor the implementation of GAD-related programs, activities, and projects in their respective offices and suggest corrective measures to improve implementation of GAD PPAs and GFPS activities;

f. Prepare and consolidate agency GAD accomplishment reports; and

g. Provide regular updates and recommendations to the head of the agency or ExeCom on the activities of the GFPS and the progress of agency GAD mainstreaming activities based on the feedback and reports of the various units of the agency.

Section 108. Functions, Roles and Responsibilities of the GAD Focal Point System.

a. Lead in the gender mainstreaming in policies, plans, programs, projects, and activities (PPAs) and the assessment of gender-responsiveness of systems, structures, policies, procedures, and programs based on priority thrusts, needs, and concerns of DepEd for its stakeholders, particularly students, teachers, and employees;

- b. Analyze programs and projects using the Harmonized GAD Guidelines for Programs and Projects to determine their gender sensitivity;
- c. Recommend formulation/revision of policies in advancing women's status and child protection;
- d. Lead in the review and updating of sex-disaggregated data for the GAD database to serve as a basis for performance-based gender-responsive planning;
- e. Implement advocacy activities, including the development of information, education, and communication materials to ensure consciousness-building and generate support for GAD;
- f. Identify gender issues arising from gender analysis and audit to serve as a basis for determining PPAs in the GAD Plan;
- g. Prepare GAD plans and budgets and accomplishment reports and ensure their timely submission to the Central Office (CO) GAD Focal Point Person (Attention: GAD Secretariat, Staff Development Division-Human Resource Development Service (SDD-HRDS), 2F Teodora Alonzo Bldg., DepEd Central Office, DepEd Complex, Meralco Avenue, Pasig City);
- h. Ensure the effective and efficient implementation of the GAD Plan and PPAs and the judicious utilization of the GAD budget;
- i. Recommend awards, recognition, and other incentives (including a performance based bonus (PBB) to outstanding institutional GAD programs, activities and projects for GAD Focal Point members and other personnel/teachers;
- j. Build and strengthen partnerships with all GAD Focal Point Persons in the Department, the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW), National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), Department of Budget and Management (DBM), GAD-non-government organizations (NGOs) and other partners; and
- k. Coordinate GAD efforts of all offices/units.

Section 109. Establishment of GAD Monitoring and Evaluation Team. – The Municipality of Tunga shall establish, strengthen, and maintain a gender-responsive Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) System. In establishing and/or the M&E System, the Local Chief Executive shall issue an Executive Order creating the M&E Team, which shall include but shall not be limited to the following:

109.a. Composition of GAD M&E Team

Chairperson: MPDC
 Members: DLG-MLGOO
 MSWDO
 CSO Representatives

Section 110. Functions of the GAD M&E Team. – The GAD M&E Team shall monitor the implementation of GAD-related programs, projects, and activities and evaluate the outcomes of the LGU GAD policies and programs. Likewise, the GAD M&E Team shall submit GAD Evaluation Report to the DILG Regional Office at the end of the Local Chief Executive's three-year term.

Section 111. Change in Administration. – In the event of a change in local administration, the remaining members of the GFPS ExeCom and TWG shall facilitate the immediate reconstitution of the GFPS, and the conduct of GAD competency development activities for newly-elected local officials.

Section 112. Documentation of GAD Activities. – The activities, programs, and projects shall be well-documented to enhance further and strengthen the efforts to promote GAD and mainstream gender in the Municipality and monitor the implementation progress.

Section 113. GAD Corner. – The Municipality of Tunga shall establish a GAD Bulletin Board and GAD Website wherein information and updates related Gender and Development can be accessed and obtained by the constituency.

Section 114. Barangay GAD Focal Point System. – Each eight (8) Barangays in the Municipality of Tunga are encouraged to establish their own GAD Focal Point System to facilitate gender mainstreaming in their respective areas.

Section 115. Functions, roles, and responsibilities of the Barangay GAD Focal Point System. – The functions, roles, and responsibilities shall consider that of the municipal level as deemed appropriate.

ARTICLE II TRAINING ON GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT

Section 116. Training/Seminar on Gender and Development. – All personnel of the Municipality of Tunga, including the local chief executive, members of the Sangguniang Bayan, and Municipal Department Heads, involved in the protection defense of women against gender-based violence, shall regularly undergo mandatory training on the Magna Carta on Women and gender and human rights. Municipal GFPS, in partnership with DILG, shall ensure the regular training of all municipal government employees and elected officials starting from the barangay on all gender-related laws, gender sensitivity training, GAD Planning and Budgeting, Barangay VAW Desk, especially Violence Against Women and Magna Carta of Women.

ARTICLE III GAD OFFICE AND RESOURCE CENTER

Section 117. GAD Office. – If feasible, the LGU shall establish a GAD Office or unit under the Office of the LCE that will coordinate all GAD related PPAs and concerns of the LGU GFPS. Until such office/unit has not been set-out, the Municipal Planning and Development Office shall serve as the center of GAD activities. CHAPTER V GAD BUDGET

Section 118. Appropriation. – The municipal and barangay government units shall appropriate at least 5% of the total annual budget of the LGU to GAD programs, projects, and services. The GAD budget shall be drawn from the municipality's Maintenance and Other Operating Expenses (MOOE), Capital Outlay (CO) and Personal Services (PS). The GAD Budget shall not constitute an additional budget over an LGU's total budget appropriations. The five percent (5%) GAD budget shall endeavor to influence the remaining 95% of the LGU budget toward gender-responsiveness. To gradually increase the gender-responsiveness of the program and projects, the municipality may attribute a portion or whole of their budgets to the GAD budget supporting gender-responsive PPAs using the Harmonized Gender and Development Guidelines (HGDG).

CHAPTER VI FINAL PROVISIONS

Section 119. Separability Clause. – If any part or provision of this Code is declared unconstitutional or invalid, the other parts or sections hereof which are not affected shall remain valid and shall continue to remain in force and effect.

Section 120. Repealing Clause. – All ordinances, resolutions, circular memoranda, rules, and regulations, or part thereof, in conflict with or inconsistent with any provisions of this ordinance, are hereby repealed or modified accordingly.

Section 121. Supplementary Clause. – On matters not provided for in this code, any existing applicable laws and their corresponding Implementing Rules, Executive Orders, and other issuances issued therefore shall apply in a supplemental manner.

Section 122. Effectivity Clause. – This Code shall take effect upon approval and compliance with the mandatory posting and publication requirements prescribed under RA 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991.

ENACTED by the Sangguniang Bayan, in session assembled this 17th day of March 2025 at Tunga, Leyte.
